Gold Medal Gilbert & Gaillard
2019 Vintage (2020 vintage NYR)

“Bright golden yellow colour. Attractive nose combining white fruits and exotic tones. On the palate a fleshy, round and concentrated wine which generously delivers its pure flavours. Beautiful, tense ensemble with a lingering finish that will shine on a shellfish.”

— Gilbert & Gaillard, 2021 (2019 Vintage)

“Pinot Beurrot” is the Burgundian name for Pinot Gris. The variety comes into its own on the slopes of St Lay in the Loire Valley south of Pouilly-sur-Loire, fully expressing its character and potential. A very round and surprisingly aromatic wine, with barrel maturation ensuring a well-structured balance.

Tasting notes: the wine is superbly round, full-bodied and unctuous in the mouth with good length. Aromas of dried fruit, apricot, honey and mead mingle with notes of gingerbread, vanilla, fresh butter and almonds. As with the other wines of Serge Dagueneau, it displays long length and superb balance.

A treat with poultry dishes, foie gras, lobster and cheeses.
